Welcome to 2026!

Happy New Year and welcome to 2026! ORS Connect is getting a refresh. To make it easier and faster to read, the newsletter will now feature short highlights with links to more detailed information.

We'll continue to share key deadlines and events. Have feedback or content to suggest? Email us at ors@ors.org.

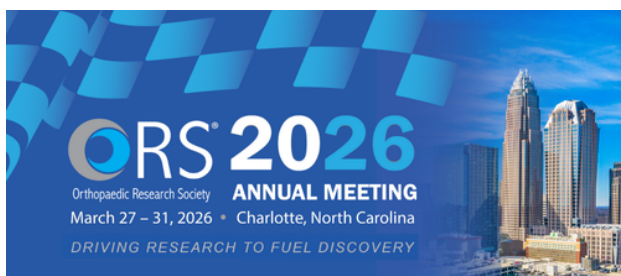

Thanks—and happy reading!

Connect with Your Representatives

Make advocacy your New Year's resolution. Introduce yourself to your elected officials now—before you need them—and offer your expertise as a scientific resource. A short email, a town hall visit, and one or two follow-ups a year can build trust and ensure your voice is heard when science policy matters. Find your representatives using the link to the left.
