

International Section of Fracture Repair (ISFR) 19th Biennial Meeting Recap

The ORS International Section of Fracture Repair (ISFR) 19th Biennial Meeting, held May 6 - 8, 2026 in Berlin, Germany, was a tremendous success, bringing together a global community of clinicians, researchers, engineers, and industry partners dedicated to advancing fracture repair research and innovation.

This year's meeting exceeded attendance expectations and featured an outstanding scientific program filled with engaging presentations, collaborative discussions, and valuable networking opportunities. Attendees participated in sessions highlighting the latest research, emerging technologies, and interdisciplinary approaches shaping the future of fracture healing and musculoskeletal care.

We extend our sincere thanks to everyone who helped make the 19th Biennial Meeting such a memorable event and look forward to continuing these important conversations and collaborations in 2028 at the 20th Biennial Meeting.
